

TRAC2 4.3.4

4.3.4 - The repository shall provide evidence of the effectiveness of its preservation activities.

Introduction

SP has worked hard to maintain a trustworthy repository capable of long-term preservation. Since 2002, SP has worked closely with its Designated Community to consistently provide relevant and usable material.

SP has collections of appropriate preservation metadata for each ejournal file in its repository.

SP has already successfully migrated its entire repository from one platform to another with no material or metadata loss.

Responsibility
