Completing old requests

We still have a bunch of old requests in our Shipped work queue, from libraries to which we supplied articles months/years ago. It would take too long to Complete every request individually. What's a faster way of clearing these out so that they disappear from the work queue?